TRAVEL WEEKLY
THE TRAVEL INDUSTRY'S TRUSTED VOICE

Four Seasons on Anguilla opens reservations

By Gay Nagle Myers / August 26, 2016

The Four Seasons Resort and Residences Anguilla, a rebranding of the former Viceroy Anguilla, has begun taking bookings prior to its October opening.

Introductory packages include a complimentary extra night for those booking at least two nights. The Stay Longer offer is valid from Oct. 20 to Dec. 15. In 2017, the package includes a free fifth night when four nights are booked.

During the holiday season from Dec. 17 to Jan. 5, a resort credit based on room category applies to on-site dining, spa treatments and resort activities. The credit ranges from $500 for one-bedroom suites up to $1,000 for five-bedroom villas, per stay. A 10-night minimum stay is required.

Rack rates start at $400 per room, per night, double.

The 35-acre resort, which offers 188 guestrooms and villas on Anguilla's southwest shore, is Four Seasons' second Caribbean resort. The company has operated the Four Seasons Nevis since 1990.